Introduction

Crimson Shore, the 15th installment of the Pendergast series takes Agent Pendergast and his faithful ward, Constance Greene to the seaside Massachusetts town of Exmouth to investigate the theft of a wine collection. However, the pair quickly learn that this rather mundane crime is actually a ruse to cover up something far more sinister, and it soon becomes apparent that this quaint town is hiding some very dark secrets. Pendergast and Constance find themselves embroiled in a mystery over 140 years old – a twisted, tangled mystery brimming with demons, witches, and good old-fashioned greed. This book is the very definition of a page-turner and readers might often find themselves open-mouthed in shock at the way they have been masterfully led astray by authors Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child.
