Following the exploits of the Tolan family in Banking, Beer & Robert The Bruce, Volume II picks up the pace with motorcycle-racing, The ‘Battle of Britain’, flying by-the-seat-of-your-pants, and then the thrill of discovering the opposite sex in the free-wheelin’ “flower-power” era.

Beginning in the 1930’s in England, the story follows the exploits of Colonel William Tate through the Second World War in India and then on to Africa. The wily Colonel not only survives abandonment in the jungles by his employer, but thrives and plays a major part in the Allied victory.

The adventure then picks up the story of a small English boy on the dangerous continent of Africa, growing up in the sixties and seventies when the civilized World was defining ‘civilized’! This unorthodox life makes for some amazing and seemingly wild happenings. Volume II of The Book of Tolan advances the tales of the Tolan family through to Y2K, 1999.
