Two teenagers in the 1970's start a relationship, as pen-pals, and soon have their futures together all mapped out, until that pesky, little, thing called life, steps in and ruins everything. Follow the separate, often painful, but always action packed lives of Teresa Mercado, from a tiny, farming village in the rural backwaters of The Philippines and Nick Stevenson, a successful accountant in Napier, New Zealand, as they seek that most elusive of dreams – happiness. When both their lives have collapsed around them and driven them to their knees they attempt to return to that simple, uncomplicated love of their youth. Can these two star-crossed lovers find each other in the new Millennium and fulfill their destinies? Finding each other again way well be as hard as finding just a single drop in the oceans that separate them. Just A Drop in the Ocean celebrates the immense power of true love and answers the question – Do soul-mates really exist? You can not help but be moved to tears by the pain and suffering these two lonely people must experience on their long, winding, journey to finding each other again, in Just A Drop in the Ocean. Revel in the power of true love as you read and enjoy Just A Drop in the Ocean.
