The Pizza Dough King Sandy Graham

The Pizza Dough King describes the life of Dino Parelli as told in his own words and thoughts. We meet Dino as he's about to leave high school and follow him through a life of challenges, successes, tragedies and conflicts, a life anchored by an undying love.

Although the story is centered around Dino's personal life, it dabbles in corporate ethics and provides a people oriented model for running a successful business, dealing also with personal morals, more of which we need today.
