Really? Really!: A Diary of Diamonds, Doubts and the Divine Jaime Rupert

Come through the question mark for an exclamation point life! Really? Really! is every bit a life adventure. Sometimes the book feels like a sitcom, a travelogue and expedition, other times, it is almost so impossible that you really can't make this stuff up! But all the time, it is based on the true stories of a life magically lived. Jaime starts life with no perspective on what she should do, no sense of who she really is, but by navigating the adventuresome journey the Divine leads her on, she travels the world, loves, loses and loves again, while developing an authentic sense of self and purpose. Through it all, Jaime guides us on how to take life's ups and downs, successes and failures, corporate injustices to carry on...always to bigger and better opportunities. This a real testimony to what can happen when we continue to live in awe and gratitude while taking the time to hear what the Divine is telling us. Really? Really!
