There's no place like home

Do fairies really come for the dish of milk we leave them? Is Mrs. McClenahan really a witch? How is it possible to find a new baby in a bed of parsley? These are all questions Pat Gardiner wants to know. And it seems her Irish housekeeper, the incomparable Judy Plum, always has an answer...

For Pat, there is no place more magical on earth than her home of Silver Bush, with its majestic birch trees and enchanting gardens. If it were up to her, nothing there would ever change. But of course if nothing changed, she'd never get a new baby sister, see her Aunt Hazel's wedding, or meet the only boy who truly understands her. Yes, there is change coming for Pat—some of it joyous and some of it heartbreaking. But no matter what, her favorite house in the world will always be waiting for her...

Richard Brassell:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Pat of Silver Bush can make you truly feel more interested to read.
