This book is not intended for general circulation. It has been prepared especially for the benefit of church administrators and other ministers who must deal with questionable or immoral conduct. Many of the letters in this volume were addressed to errant ministerial laborers. All given names in this book are genuine, but, in the various problem cases cited, letters of the alphabet have been substituted for the surnames. All chapter titles and sub-headings have been supplied. It is our hope and prayer that in the hands of an ever-learning and truly caring church, the materials in this compilation will contribute to the elevation of moral standards in the church, and at the same time provide comfort, encouragement, and hope for those whose complex moral problems seem beyond human solution.
