'From Pillar To Post' takes a look at the restlessness of humans in vulnerable situations, especially in intimate relationships that become very traumatic. 'From Pillar To Post' takes the reader through the lives of two very close friends, Donna and David, their individual relationships with their current married, lifelong partners, their continuous affection for each other and eventually their lasting bond between them. Sometimes we 'move on' or 'change' what we think is the best way for our lives and end up worst off than before. We mentally and in some instances, actually create a plan with specific activities that are supposed to fix the many so-called problems we encounter. We never stop to breathe, feel the presence of the Divine or even think things through before acting on our impulses, letting go of the emotions that are so often present with the given situation. Outside influences tested Donna and David's affection for each other, which unfolded a series of events that devastated them, only to realize that they needed to breathe, think and feel the presence of the 'Divine' working within them to achieve their goal. Something they totally neglected. We tend to always look for better when sometimes best is what we already have. Who's to say that we already have the best? Everything we don't have always seems greener on the other side. But is it really? The most tragic of all is when we are in a relationship and the pressure is on. We ask ourselves many questions and answer them ourselves especially when we are hot-tempered. Actually, these are the times we ought not to, but we do anyway. Relationships are fragile connections of emotions, chemistry, passion, intellect, stimulation, eroticism, and attitude and to a large extent lust. Of course this is strictly from a secular perspective. When we explore our hearts truthfully we will find that there are lots more to it. Relationships though intangible have many tangible aspects that should be exercised for prop
