Italian Lessons Joan L. Arndt

Standing above the dramatic arches underpinning the Basilica of Assisi and carried away by the beauty of the moment, Joan and Roger were determined to move to Italy. It took time, effort, grit, money, heavy doses of humor and even stronger servings of Italian "pazienza" but in the end, move they did. Launching a new career hosting vacationers, they persevered, renovating "Le Vigne," an old farmhouse. This is their story of good fortune, at times matched in equal measure with frustration. They made their dream come true. Here are their Italian lessons.
