A Syrian wedding party is incinerated by a Hellfire missile fired from an American drone. Many are killed, but one survivor turns to an American lawyer for help in bringing the responsible parties to justice. The survivor is the bride-to-be and she is furious. Besides seeing justice done in an American court, she also is ready for payback of her own with a weapon of mass destruction.

The American lawyer called on to obtain justice is Christine Susmann. Together with her lunch group known as Sisters In Law, the pursuit for justice begins. Old loves are re-visited by the sisters and new romances take root as the daily lives of the sisters become focused on the Syrian wedding party gone awry.

A trial follows. The accused are brothers who are oil-rich and looking to obtain Syrian oil for their own tankers. A race to the finish line brings this thriller to its exciting conclusion.

Christine Susmann is at her terrible best in this book, the second in the Christine Susmann legal thriller series known as the Sisters in Law.
