Despite the weird name and the whole adoption thing, Topaz's life is pretty average. She has a boss she doesn't like, a cat who thinks the world revolves around her, a best friend she's crushed on for years, and a day job that keeps her from her dream job of being an author. All perfectly normal things.

But everything changes when she slips on a letter that appears out of nowhere. The letter—written by her biological mother—proves just how abnormal things really are. Not only does she have two sisters, but she's also a hereditary witch.

Just when Topaz starts thinking that maybe there's something to this magic thing, she learns a lesson all new witches learn: Magic isn't all it's cracked up to be. And sometimes, Karma can be a real witch.
