True love is sacrifice. Someone who is willing to sacrifice his/her life, time, savings and everything that was once dear to him/her can truly boast of having a true and pure relationship. Things usually do not go as planned and there are constraints, there are short comings on both the sides and certainly there are other factors that make up the whole idea of "True Love". Presented here is a collection of carefully crafted words that will make you think about the kind of world we are living in today.

How everything can change overnight and how you can go from being someone who always took pride in sacrificing to someone who lost everything because of a destined event. These poems are meant to convey the feelings of a man once madly in love, left alone at his own mercy.
