Chantelle Warren is just biding her time until after the Christmas celebration she's planning. Then she'll ask the Elders to name her mate, because after months of Sebastian's flirty smiles and almost innocent touches, she's ready for more and confident he's the one.

Sebastian Robins wants nothing more than to find his raven-haired beauty wrapped in nothing but a bow beneath the Christmas tree. But with feelings already running deep, he has to stand firm. His dragon doesn't like his resolve, and keeps pushing him toward Chantelle's phoenix, but Sebastian can't risk losing his heart if Chantelle isn't his fated mate.
