“Fate could not be so perverse as to put them together again like this...”

Jemma Slone has finally got her life together – living in a new city with a new job that she is proud of. Until one evening when making her way through a snowy, almost deserted parking lot she has an embarrassing slip on ice and finds the stranger that comes to her rescue is none other than Travis – an ex lover she betrayed six years ago, -- a man she had run from due to the intensity of their feelings and her own fears of inadequacy. They try to catch up like old friends, but find themselves in the same undeniable passion that marked their relationship years ago. Her guilt and his anger quickly turn to ravenous desire. But somewhere along away, their past must be addressed...
